2. It's "All Aboard" the New Haven--for America's very first ice skate train! 450
- ✓ 15. outdoor enthusiasts make the initial excursion from New York City to Kent, Connecticut....a ride of about two and a half hours. To the Big City cliff-dwellers it's a welcome reprieve from work-a-day routines. Here we are! Everybody's anxious to get skates on and view the lovely scenery.....
16. Night skating, on Hatch Lake....and something they never thought of in the 18. Argentine: the Conga Line, on ice!!

29. You knew this was going to happen...but do you know that the nation's largest
40. bobsled here, is 76 ft long; weighs seventeen hundred and eighty pounds; carries 113 riders and makes 90 miles an hour? And there's an unscheduled event on this first run....Our cameraman comes that close to a bad collision! A few bent parts, otherwise all's okay, for a zippy final picture!

Winter holiday news from America ! The biggest bob-sled in the world. Eighty feet long, 120 folks aboard, and if a cameraman gets in the way it's too bad.

New Yorkers crowded the Skating Special. 500 enthusiasts forgot city life and resolved to have a good time, and look their best into the bargain.

(AFTER GETTING OUT) In these mountain places there's good healthy exercise and lots of wonderful scenery.

And nobody fined for showing a light !

Where do the Nazis go in wintertime ? If they're prisoners of war many of them are sent to camps in Canada, so the bombs won't spoil their sleep. Most of them are pilots brought down in England, or rescued from the sea.

(AFTER CU FEET) They're safely tucked away for the duration, and there'll be plenty more to follow them. Here's a tip: if you don't want to be taken for a Nazi, don't have your coat mended with a round patch.

The Badgett quadruplets have had their second birthday. They are all girls and thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Geraldine ... Jeanette Joyce and Jean.

They call them the Four Jays, so they went jay-walking in mother's high-heeled shoes.

Jeanette, you're losing your dignity.
