

FLASHES

America has completed the capture of Saipan, key island in the Pacific, less than 1,500 miles from Tokio. These are the latest pictures of the assault. In 25 days the U.S. forces killed 10,000 Japs, out of the 30,000 defending the island.

~~Japanese command headquarters~~

Japanese settlers on Saipan were taken out of gun range.

While the Americans were ^{fighting to establish} ~~establishing~~ an air base ~~withing~~

~~the island~~, the native motto was

Business as Usual.

German multiple rocket guns are among new weapons on the Russian front. They're good, but nothing like good enough to stop the Red Army. As shown in these captured enemy pictures the rockets are quite a spectacular outfit.

Beaufighters of RAF Coastal Command, busier since D-Day than for months past, are shooting up ~~the~~ ^{the} merchantmen ^{at Nazir}

~~now use to so much to railways~~ ^{now use to so much to railways} ~~not much evidence owing to RAF railway bombing.~~ ^{Sighting}

^{Sighting} nine cargo ships with 30 escorts, off Heligoland, the Beaufighters torpedoesd four, ~~set five men o' war ablaze~~ and raked the lot with cannon-fire.

CHANGES BASED ON OVERNIGHT CLOSING PRICES

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS