

ELECTION FEVER GRIPS AMERICA

~~Communists are being used to attack Dewey~~

~~Charleston, Virginia was typical of many all American~~

Charleston, Virginia was the typical U.S. town on the eve of the Presidential election. Governor Dewey bathed in the admiration of his supporters during his energetic campaign. In this town an audience of six thousand heard a fighting speech.

F. Roosevelt
At the White House ~~F. D. R.~~ denied that he seeks Fascist or communist support.

T: 148:
Bg:
Eff:
Kees
Abbott
#13
Non

1. TITLE: CAMPAIGN GETS HOT--F.D.R. CALLS VOTERS, DEWEY CALLS VOTERS

2. From the White House, E.D.R., in his second official campaign speech of 1944. (TALK)

9. And while the President holds to his promise of no campaign trips, Governor Dewey arrives at Charleston,
West Virginia on his second trip of the campaign.
Then, before a crowd of 6,000, he lashes back at the President: (TALK)