

ENGLAND AGAIN BEATS SCOTLAND

pl-1
Sixty six thousand saw the war's most thrilling soccer international at Villa Park. First Lord of the Admiralty A. V. Alexander greeted the players. Scotland's recent form against the R.A.F. led their supporters to hope, as ~~the match~~<sup>it</sup> kicked off, that the Scottish run of bad luck might come to an end. ~~Attacking from the start~~
~~the Scots showed more skill and vigour than in any game since the war began.~~ gs by.

(After crowd) Stanley Matthews had a hand in the first goal, headed by Brown, who put England one up.

(After crowd) Delaney, Celtic outside right, soon equalized.

~~In the second half the high standard of play was fully maintained~~

One of the big features ~~of the game~~ was the brilliant work of Scotland's goal-keeper
~~goal keeping of Scotland's Petty Officer Brown.~~

England's second
(After crowd) Mortensen scored ~~the second for~~ ~~England.~~

(Four out)

The score was two all. England attacked again and Mortensen scored the winning goal.
