

IRELAND BEAT WALES

Ireland kicked off against Wales before 50,000 spectators, probably the biggest crowd to see an international at Lansdowne Road, Dublin. Wales confidently expected to win and so gained the triple crown. However, it was soon clear that Ireland had much the <sup>better</sup> ~~superior~~ pack. They blotted out Cliff Morgan and the Welsh three-quarters. weren't much in the picture. Still, Garfield ~~Samuel~~ Owen's penalty for Wales was the only score in the first half.

In the second half a dropped goal by Kyle levelled the score, 7-7.

After 25 minutes, Pedlow kicked a penalty goal for Ireland from 40 yards out.

Ireland were now very much on top. O'Neara sent Martin Cunningham over the line for the only try of the match. Pedlow kicked the goal; Ireland-11, Wales-3.
