

SCOTLAND AND ENGLAND DRAW

~~**~~

(27) 30 Much admiring the work of England's new goalkeeper Mathews the tremendous ^{H.P.} crowd of ^{134,000} ~~~~ chiefly put it down to his brilliance that Scotland didn't score in the first half. Neither did England. The powerful Tommy Younger in Scotland's goal was impressive too. ~~~~ And now that the second half was under way the dark-shirted heart Scotland eleven took ~~~~ as Graham Leggat put the ball in the England net.

Veteran captain Billy Wright did all he could to rally England, whenever possible feeding inside-left Johnny Haynes, so far the only danger man of the English forward line. And ~~now~~ ^{though} Scotland began to have some narrow escapes, But as the game neared the end it looked like victory for Scotland at last.

(88) In the very last minute Byrne passed to Haynes; Johnny ~~scored~~ ^{scored} the equaliser.

Tough luck for Scotland, indeed.
