

At Soestdijk Palace Queen Juliana and her family were at home to the people. They came in their thousands, some of them in Dutch national dress, to say many happy returns to Her Majesty, who was celebrating her 47th birthday.

20 They brought tributes in the form of spring flowers, a mark of affection ~~from their~~ her subjects bear their democratic Queen.

Six of one family, four sisters, two brothers, were married together at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Blenheim, Ontario. These six and nine other children make up the family of a local farmer. He is so busy that he insisted on this mass marriage; one ceremony was all the time he could spare. 25 When you have 15 children separate weddings would be a full time job.
