THE five V.C.s at the Army Chaplain's dinner last night. From left: the Rev. K. Elliot, New Zealand; the Rev. J. W. Foote, Canada; the Rev. E. N. Mellish, Britain; the Rev A. H. Proctor, Britain; the Rev. G. H. Woolley, Britain.

Of their valour and of that of other V.C.s, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, said yesterday: "It carries a higher and more chivalrous meaning—a meaning properly Christian. It embraces not only the courage, but the cause. . . ."
