COWAL HIGHLAND GAMES

Highland games are in full swing. Near Dunoon the Cowal games attracted some Australian Scots in a sword dancing championship.

Now A little friendly fun of a more vigorous kind. ~~high jump~~ The high six-foot, three-and-a-half. jump was won at ~~the high jump~~

The hammer was thrown 108-foot-six.

That well-known figure in the games season, G. Mitchell, was far too good for all other competitors. ^{popular} The/Glasgow policeman stands no nonsense from the Caber.
