

Paris: Charming heralds of brighter days ~~gather~~ gather at the famous fashion-salon of Jacques Fath - to model an eagerly-awaited Spring collection.

~~...~~
white ruffles.

~~Here again, the high-fashion colour is blue, lined with white stripes. And to soften those tailored lines - a charming hat made of small black silk leaves.~~

~~...~~ gray ensemble, with fashionable large pockets in the slit jacket.

Since the tragic death of her husband, Genevieve Fath has carried on the great Paris establishment. She has always favoured "the feminine line" - (now, very much in evidence) as seen in this dark blue suit, with a big taffeta bow.

For afternoon wear - a dress in black crêpe, topped by a striking white pleated collar. A novel note is introduced by wearing a necklace in reverse...

Making its bow - this white cotton evening gown reveals the trend of the collection. A slender waist and a full skirt - both designed to ~~xxx~~ lend importance to the bust-line.

And, sitting pretty, the model wears a white embroidered satin blouse and skirt

Yeh Spring ^{CERTAINLY} IS ON THE WAY!

~~Finally, a white evening dress, embroidered with gold, a hopeful promise of sunny days to come.~~