

NATIONAL AIR RACES.

70,000 thrill-seekers packed the Municipal Airport as a majestic fleet of Uncle Sam's army eagles opened the National Air Races. Speed and aerobatics --- the stunters leave a ragged smoke-trail to show where they've been. ~~Next the upside down man.~~ Roumania's ace demonstrates how to pick up a girl on the promenade. ~~Now the umbrellas.~~ No meeting complete without a glider --- and watch the gongsters catch him for speeding. ~~Next, the ten thousand dollar trophy race --~~ a hundred-mile speed dash for thirty laps. A Frenchman leads but Joe Jacobson comes down for a bumpy landing. Believe it or not, he wasn't hurt. Now look out for another crack-up. ~~Once again the pilot~~ escaped injury, ~~but the crowd got its money's worth.~~
