

A big surprise fell to the lot of Ernest Whitcombe and the rest of the golfing world in the big professional tournament of the year. ^{23 y-o - Dai Rees of Swat} After being five down on the morning round, ~~23-year-old Dai Rees~~ of Surbiton pulled up to all square and eventually won the match one up. Rees is a golfer worth watching for the Open Championship. ~~America~~ America sends us a cameo too of a wonder golfer. Babe Didrickson had a gallery of 1500 when she played ~~an exhibition match~~ in Minneapolis. America calls her the Queen of Swat.

CAMPBELL BLACK.

It is with the deepest regret that we record the death of Mr Tom Campbell Black --- a great airman, a gallant comrade. These pictures were taken at Speke aerodrome a few hours before he was killed --- he is seen receiving and christening the 'plane ~~Miss Liverpool~~ in which he was to have taken part in the flight to Johannesburg. Now another name must be added to the roll of those who have died in the service of aviation. Joint pilot with C.W.A Scott in the Melbourne Air Race --- the record to Australia which is still unbeaten ^{made} Campbell Black ~~became~~ world famous, ~~although he had already many achievements to his credit.~~ Shortly afterwards he married Miss Florence Desmond. At the time of his death Campbell Black was Aviation Manager to Gaumont British News. As the world will mourn the loss of one of its famous men, we too mourn the passing of a colleague and a friend.

KING AT BALLATER.

Gordon Highlanders were drawn up outside Ballater Station as a guard of honour when King Edward changed from train to car on his journey north. His Majesty is wearing the Balmoral Tartan, in place of the Royal Stuart Tartan worn by the late King George. / After inspecting the Guard of Honour the King drove to Balmoral --- the first visit to his Scottish home since his accession.
