

TRAFALGAR DAY.

Trafalgar Square is centre of the British Empire on Trafalgar Day when the memory of the great little Admiral is kept green with wreath and flowers. / At Portsmouth the service upon the Victory concludes with the hoisting of Nelson's famous signal --- this year run up in three sections, as was actually done ~~next Trafalgar Day~~ at the Battle of Trafalgar.

DRIVERS LOVE THEIR VEHICLES.

The popular question of the hour is whether drivers love their vehicles, so we give the result of our cameraman's inquiry.

Do you love your ~~taxi~~ bus?

Do you love your lorry?

Do you love your boat?

Do you love your tram?

Do you love your horse?

~~Do you love your car?~~

Duke of Kent

His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent received as great a welcome as ever when he paid a visit to St. Leffric's. Lunch at the Town Hall was followed by inspection of some of the City's ~~great~~ work, ~~much of it done by~~ ~~employed~~ members of the British Legion.
