

MILLWALL v DERBY.

329

A record crowd packed into ^{the} Millwall ground for the only Cup Tie in London --- and before the game began hundreds left their places and ~~ran~~ ran to find better seats. Order was restored after a time and then the teams came out --- first Millwall while the crowd surged and swayed like a wheatfield in a wind. Then ~~the~~ white-jerseyed men from the north --- Derby County. Derby won the toss --- and Millwall kicked off in the face of a stiffish breeze. Thrills came early --- a vigorous attack by Derby found the Millwall goal in danger --- a shot --- but it went safely into the crowd. Again the onlookers got restive and rushed across the pitch. Then once more the play got really exciting and the spectators got all worked up. A few minutes later came the first goal for Derby --- a battering attack found Keen in possession and he scored --- ~~Derby~~. Shortly afterwards Millwall equalised through Mangnall and the score at half time was one all. Derby kicked off in the second half and this period saw the struggle of two teams battling for that extra goal to get into round 6. Five minutes before the finish it seemed that Millwall had it. From a centre the ball went to Mangnall who popped it into the Derby net, but it was offside. Are you still eating? At last Millwall's persistent attack had its reward --- ~~when it seemed the result must be a draw two minutes from time~~ McCartney took the ball and nicked it in --- so Millwall won a grand game by 2 goals to 1. And for a finish the crowd ran wild --- bursting over the pitch in a ^{crazy} chaotic mass --- a Cup Tie never witnessed any more amazing scenes!
