

Giants of the world of professional tennis --- Big Bill Tilden wore a fancy shirt and a grim look when he faced Britain's famous ex-amateur, before a house full of boiled shirts at Madison Square Garden. Tilden won his first national championship 17 years ago, and that's a long time for a tennis star. In this match in New York he had to give the younger man best. He won one set at 6 - 4 --- but the rest went to Perry 6 - 1, 6 - 3, 6 - love. / Fred can still play tennis and he can still jump the net.

HOW TO KEEP A CORONET ON.

With the approach of the Coronation a West End hairdresser has produced a simple but effective means of keeping a peeresses coronet firmly on the head. The style of hair-wave is the foundation of the idea, while inside the coronet are combs which fix on to the hair. It is also really quite a good place to keep a lip-stick. With the combs firmly fixing the coronet to the hair the peeress may bend down or look about without fear. / We trust that these few hints will be accepted in the spirit in which they are given, because it would be most unfortunate if one were to fall off. /
