

Aldershot Military Meeting is held in the most attractive ~~surroundings~~ surroundings and among the many racegoers who attended was Major General the Duke of Gloucester, with the Duchess. The first race of the day was the Royal Scots Greys Challenge Cup --- a special entry for greys who made a fine show in the paddock. Most of the horses here are ridden by the owners --- Mr Crump must feel a bit lonely --- and in the second race there was a good field of fourteen, but at the first jump it was reduced by one. Then away they went into the open country --- three miles one furlong --- a hard gallop for five year olds or over, all Government chargers. It is the Army's own steeplechase meeting --- and the Army had certainly picked out a picturesque course for itself. The winner was called Ardliamoge, and as it belonged to a Lieutenant Colonel I'm sure it was a veery popular win.

CEPTIC v CLMDE.

Celtic in green and white hoops took the field first for their match against Clyde --- the semi-final of the Scottish Cup watched by some 20,000 spectators -- and they beat Clyde by two goals to nil. Celtic won the toss and elected to kick with the wind behind them, and quite soon they established their superiority. Except for a few determoned rus ed by Clyde the green and white hoops had most of the game. The first goal came in the first half from McGrory. The ~~weather~~ ^{spirits} ~~enthusiasm~~ was dull and this seemed to have the effect of damping the ~~enthusiasm~~ of the spectators, but Celtic with thair win of 2 nil passed on cheefffully to the Final.
