

TIMING REHEARSAL.

343

Coachman, footmen and horses took part in a rehearsal of the Coronation procession through the London streets, between the Abbey and the Palace. And a stop-watch also took part in the rehearsal, for its purpose was to find out how long the Coronation drive will take. And now once again we give you a glimpse of the other Coronation activities. Among the latest whims of the creators of feminine fashion is one that will have to be hauled down at sunset. At Windsor itself, the Mayor and Corporation called at the historic castle, ^{delivering} ~~to deliver~~ a loyal address to the king, with the Dean and ~~Chapter~~ Chapter and the Military Knights of Windsor. And at Windsor too, the changing of the guard --- for the first full guard since King George V was in residence in 1935.
