

KING AT SANDHURST

To-morrow's officers of the British Army paraded at the Royal Military College for the visit of inspection by Their Majesties the King and Queen --- who were received by the Secretary for War. With their Majesties were Queen Mary, the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester and the Princess Royal. The purpose of the visit was the dedication of the Memorial Chapel.

The Chapel had been built at a cost of £100,000, and the Archbishop of Canterbury conducted the service which the Royal visitors attended. After the service, the parade marched past and the King took the salute.
