

SPAIN.

First pictures from the Basque Republic of the Holy City of Guernica --- scene of the most terrible airraid our modern history yet can boast. Hundreds were killed here --- men women and children Four thousand bombs were dropped out of a blue sky into a hell that raged unchecked for five murderous hours. ~~Twelve miles from Bilbao~~ scarcely a house was left standing, and the ruins alone remain as mute evidence of the remorseless inhumanity of war. This was a city --- and these were homes like yours. ~~XXXXXXXX~~
TRACK RACING.

Philadelphia --- Three thousand athletes from every state in the union took part in the Penn Relays. And forty thousand spectators watched for thrills as they fought out the quarter-mile final. North Texas won a magnificent race and the camera captured an elegy of speed.

CHINA.

Suiyan --- the military might of Northern China mobilized in tribute to comrades who fell in the defence against Japan. The spirit of Chiang Kai-Shek inspired a hundred thousand men to pledge themselves to the Central Government for a new Army. Mongolian ponies rolled across the plains of Asia --- China's sleeping dragon is awake.
