DERBY HORSES.

Our racegoing cameraman dropped in at Mr Fred Butters' stables at Newbury to find out all about the Derby, and he saw Midday Sun being exercised with his stable-companions. Midday Sun was sired by Solaris. Now look at Solfo, training with Mr Jarvis at Newmarket. You might even look at him each way. Fairford is at Mr Cotterill's stables at Lambourne in Berkshire and after Fairford comes Cash Book. Horseracing is expensive, so don't forget to take your cash book to Epsom. And we also have an exclusive picture of the Victoria Club's Derby call over --- not to be confused with the Derby hang-over. That is how to settle ~~All that settles~~ the price of the Derby horses that you see in the newspapers. The date is settled --- the price is settled --- and the rest of it is up to the horse.

MANCHESTER CITY v GERMANY.

On their triumphant tour through Germany Manchester City met their first defeat in the Olympic Stadium in Berlin against the German National Team. 75,000 turned out to watch a fast, thrilling game and catch their breath at the exciting moments. Both ~~teams~~ teams were exceptionally well served in goal, but at the end of the first half the English team led by 2 - 1. The second half saw a reverse in fortune, however, and Germany eventually won by three goals to two.
