

961
GLASGOW POLICE.

2 Glasgow Police turned in force on Queen's Park Recreation Ground for inspection by Brigadier General Dudgeon, and as usual with police parades everything went without a hitch. Mounted Police, Mobile Police and foot police all took part. And at the end of the parade General Dudgeon expressed the opinion that they were a credit to the city of Glasgow.

BIRMINGHAM.

Building of the new hospital proceeds apace, and our cameraman paused in the course of a busy day in Birmingham to show its steady development into a vast cathedral of physical healing. On the same day the Birmingham City Police held their sports --- the Lord Mayor, Alderman Harold Roberts, J.P., being present. And to crown the day --- the Carnival --- which included the crowning of a most charming Beauty Queen and a gay procession through the city.