

CAR RACE.

On the new ~~Rever~~ Raceway at Westbury, Long Island, international drivers took part in a 300-mile race for the Vanderbilt Cup. The race over this attractive course resolved itself into a duel between the British ace, Richard Seaman, and Bernard Rosemeyer. Rosemeyer took the lead fifty miles from the finishing post and went on to win 51 seconds ahead of his rival.

California adds one more to her list of racetracks --- but it's horseracing, and the track is owned by crooner Bing Crosby. Horses and film stars divide the attention. Here's Robert Taylor, to hand out a thrill when the racing's dull. Behind dark glasses, Una Merkel ---- and anywhere among the crowd you might spot a favourite that never lets you down. Of the racing itself we select the most thrilling event of the day as they come up the straight there are three running muzzles to ~~muzzle~~ muzzle. Here's a grand feeling if you backed the winner ---- here's a terrible feeling if you backed the loser, ~~and~~ Here's another fine mess you've gotten me into.
