Stratosphere girl.

Miss Camilla Mayer who performs balancing feats on top of Clacton's 150 ft. steel mast. Police are investigating several attempts to imperil her life by cutting the guy ropes supporting the mast. Horrified attendants saw it sway perilously as Miss Mayer was poised on the top.

A day and night guard is now kept on the ropes, but in spite of the attempts ~~at cutting the ropes~~ Camilla is quite unconcerned. Sir Malcolm Campbell.

The Bluebird takes the water for Sir Malcolm Campbell's attempt on the World's water speed record. Conditions ^{DO NOT} look favourable as Bluebird roars away across the water-----

In a final burst of speed Bluebird reaches ~~126.32 M.P.H.~~ ^{126.32 M.P.H.}

beating the world record held by the American Gar Wood since 1932. Sir Malcolm Campbell now holds for Britain the water speed record and the land speed record set up

~~by him~~ in 1935. Congratulations to the King of Speed.
