SOUTHEND FLYING CLUB.

All the air-minded people in Southend were present at the aerodrome at Rochford, when the Royal Air Force Escort brought Sir Philip Sassoon ~~for their Air Force day~~, and they watched ~~with~~ without getting stiff necks. Sir Philip was received by the Mayor and the programme continued. Absolutely everybody turned up in time to watch the aerobatics, except one dog who got hung up somewhere. There was a parachute display by Gwynn Johns, holder of the world's delayed drop record, ~~but he~~ didn't break any records this time. ~~but he~~ Southend being a seaside town, you'll naturally expect to see a lot of pretty girls ~~but~~ --- so we'll now show you the mass flight of the ~~hixxx~~ local birds.

XALCE HARVEST MOON BALL.

Every year in New York they hold a dancing championship and all the boys and girls ~~and boys put on their best behavior~~ tread a measure to waltz time. After that they have the ~~xxx~~ heavyweight championship under the no-foul rule. It's a cross between dancing and arresting a suffragette. Grandma used to learn dancing ~~because~~ because it taught her to walk gracefully. This dance would teach her to crawl up a drainpipe.
