

MR EDEN'S SPEECH.

Mr Eden then turned to world affairs. the political situation concerning the peace of Europe and the world.

BERLIN AIR RAID.

While the ^{story} ~~news~~ of actual air-raids flashed across the world from China, Berlin staged a mock air-raid during the rush-hour --- ~~a rehearsal to show how quickly and effectively the citizens of the capital could take cover.~~ At the first warning, houses, ~~offices~~, offices, shops, buses, cars and trams were all deserted for bomb- and gas-proof shelters. And overhead, squadron after squadron of bombers darkened the sky --- playing a duet of death with defending anti-aircraft guns. This is peace-time make-believe --- in war it would be worse than this.

Representatives of Japan & China looked on with what emotions you may best imagine

BRITISH SERVICE CHIEFS LEAVE HENDON.

~~British Service chiefs left Hendon Aerodrome to witness the German Manoeuvres.~~ ^{Field Marshal} Major-General Sir Cyril Deverill represented the War Office, Air Marshall Sir A. Longmore represented the Air Ministry, ^{when British Chiefs left} ~~They took off in a Bombay Bomber, ----- and~~ ^{Hend on to} ~~They took off in a Bombay Bomber, ----- and~~ bombers loomed large in the ~~German~~ news of the week.