

CLOUSTON WEDDING.

Farnborough --- in the rural surroundings of the Hampshire countryside, Miss Elsie Turner hurried to the parish church to marry Flying Officer Clouston, hero of the Cape record flight. The ceremony was very quiet, and the G.B. Roving Cameraman got a scoop with these exclusive pictures. We wish them good luck --- what's the hurry ? --- and many, many years of record-breaking happiness.

WAR OFFICE CHANGES.

London --- Mr Hore Belisha, the energetic War Minister, has made sweeping changes in the high command of the British Army, bringing the average age of the Army Council down from 63 to 52. Field Marshal Sir Cyril Deverell, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, has resigned to make way for a younger man, and his place is now filled by 51-year-old General Viscount Gort, V.C. He is the youngest man ever to be chosen for this high rank.

THANKSGIVING PARADE.

New York --- Christmas is coming, and they celebrate with the usual parade of monster figures. A sky procession, floating on helium gas. Some of them require as many as fifty men to hold them down. We always take this picture in the hope that forty-nine of them will suddenly want to blow their noses.

What can you see? *M*oh - isn't it like ~~the~~ grandma?
