

415-
POLICE BOOTS.

London --- at the West India Dock the Police Sports Club gave shoes to the poor children of the neighbourhood. ^ They also entertained them to tea, and what with champing jaws and squeaky shoes you couldn't hear yourself hicough. It was a great afternoon, and a credit to the big-hearted man in blue. It brings tears to ~~the~~ <sup>your</sup> eyes to see a hefty sergeant pouring out tea. Let's hope it won't rot the shoes.

LAUNCH.

Glasgow --- a new destroyer took the water --- H.M.S. Sikh. So was launched one more addition to Britain's Fleet --- one more ship to help maintain the peace of the world.

EARL DE LA WARR.

London --- Earl de la Warr, Chairman of the National Labour Organization, was interviewed before leaving for Australia.