

ODEON, UXBRIDGE.

468

One more palatial building in the familiar Odeon style --- the latest super-cinema to be added to a great chain of entertainment houses opens its doors to Uxbridge. And a gala night with pipers and buglers marked the occasion. Hundreds attended this first night with many famous people among them, but thousands had gathered outside to watch the arrival of those glamorous personalities of the world of films. From the falling light of a summer evening into the glittering foyer they walked from their cars, cheered enthusiastically by the spectators. Mr Oscar Deutsch, with Mrs Deutsch, was there to receive them all --- Sabu, the famous young Indian star of Elephant Boy and the Drum, was there among many others. With Sabu in the picturesque uniform that he wore in the Drum was Miss Valerie Hobson, also ~~showingxxxxxxx~~ starring in that picture. The opening ceremony was performed by Mr H.A. Leno, Chairman of the Uxbridge Urban District Council --- a good choice, for this undoubtedly adds to the attractions of the district in no small measure. ~~So under the watchful eye of Mrs and Mrs Deutsch --- For Mrs Deutsch takes an active part in the design of the artistic Odeon --- another Odeon comes into being.~~ And everywhere you look you will pick out people you know --- or know of --- Mr Herbert Wilcox and Miss Anna Neagle complete as distinguished an audience as ever came to a first night. So we wish good luck to the latest Odeon --- a big step forward in the ~~entertainment~~ luxury entertainment of Uxbridge.