

CRYSTAL PALACE.

469

London --- International Meeting on the road-racing circuit of the Crystal Palace, for the London Grand Prix. This is a race of 52 miles in all,, the heats being twenty miles and the final 32. There is also a ten-mile sidecar race for the Norwood Cup. Sidecar racing is one of the most popular sports to-day --- one that gives the passengerx as much to do as the driver.

JOE LOUIS.

America --- In New York Yankee Stadium Joe Louis proved his right of ownership to the heavyweight championship. ~~of the world~~. And he seemed to know all about it when he was interviewed beforehand.

NUFFIELD AND ATHLONE .

. London --- Lord Nuffield was present at Guy's Hospital when the new Pathological Building of the Medical School was opened by the Earl of Athlone. Lord Nuffield is Treasurer, and he is said to have advanced £30,000 for the building. That's the kind of Treasurer you want to have for a slate club.

SWIMMING POOL.

St Albans --- Lord Sempill borrowed a bathing suit from one of the girls when he opened the new bathing pool at Birklands School. But it's no good looking ~~happily~~ for the girl who lent it because she obviously had two. ~~The opening ceremony was quite informal.~~

RODEO.

New South Wales --- After the Sydney Show, the Rodeo comes to the town. As a change from/polite equestrianism of the city, here is the rough riding of the back-blocks. Man and horse combine to make a rodeo entertainment --- but they seem to be able to do all right
