

FLOODS IN JAPAN.

481

Once again our foreign news contains a record of floods in Japan. First from Tokyo, now from Kobe the waters following phenomenal rains~~xxx~~ have risen like a tide. Hundreds are dead-p-- many, many thousands are homeless. The heaviest rainfall Japan has known for 35 years caused this disaster --- collapse of a dam in the Northern district sent reinforcements of swirling water raging through the streets. Under her military Government Japan is committed to a death struggle/ⁱⁿ~~with~~ China. The Soviet wolf howls at her backdoor in Manchukuo. ~~At home, domestic uneasiness is aggravated by the devastation of Nature.~~ The people of Japan may well ask --- What next?
