

CYCLISTS.

Chicago --- ^{from} ~~in~~ Garfield Park they held the National Cycling Championships. They're amateurs, so it's a twenty-five mile road-race. When the six-day professionals do it they ride in a circle so as to be close handy on pay-day. The winner was Norman April.

TENNIS.

New York --- at Forest Hills they're holding the American Amateur Tennis Championships. Donald Budge is in the final. He always is. Mako was his opponent, but not for long. So Budge won another title ~~and another one.~~

GUARDS.

London --- at St Paul's Cathedral a guards' ceremony was attended by Lord Derby and by the Lord Mayor of London who will shortly be ending his year of office. The occasion was the laying up of colours of the 2nd Battalion Grenadiers.

FOOTBALL.

Minneapolis..... American football between the Golden Gophers from Minnesota and the Huskies from Washington. To British eyes this game looks like a jig-saw puzzle come to life but it has its moments. Watch how Minnesota scored the winning goal.
