EUCCHARISTE CONGRESS.

America --- Thousands of Roman Catholics answered the call of their faith at the eighth National Eucharistic Congress. Sixty-five thousand children attended the children's Mass. Presiding as representative of the Pope was the Archbishop of Chicago --- blessing young America in the warm sunshine of Louisiana. HATS.

New York ---- Miss Manhattan sends to Britain a few ideas for the new season's hats. If Miss Britain has any sense she'll send most of them back. Some of them have ^{fancy} ~~pratty~~ names ---- Lambeth Walk, or East of Suez. Name or no name --- would you go out with a girl in a hat like that? ~~That's it!~~ CLEANING BIG BEN.

London -- the old Metropolis has been having a lot of fog lately, and this is the time chosen to wash the face of ~~one~~ the world's most famous clock. Big Ben of Westminster is going to smile once more. "ith a well-scrubbed phizzog, he'll sit above London like the only ~~clean~~ boy at the party. GIRL BILLIARD -PLAYER.

California --- here's a new wizard of the green tables. If you meet Ruth McGinnis in the local, don't let her play you a hundred up for the drinks.
