

DR BENES.

London --- In the peaceful district of Putney a dignified yet careworn gentleman is seeking rest. He is Dr. Benes, ex-President of Czecho-Slovakia. He has come to Britain with Mme. Benes, ~~sasking~~ relaxing after the tremendous strain which he was forced to undergo at the time of the European crisis.

PALESTINE.

Palestine --- British troops are still busy in Jertusalem and Haifa, engaged in the very difficult task of trying to mix oil and water. To add to other difficulties, a general s trike has been called. All drivers have been ordered to carry permits, and checking up on the wire-protected cars is a daily job. The object of the permits is to stop the activities of the rebel Arab gangs.

BABY GIRAFFE.

Berlin --- "There's a new baby in the Zoo, ~~and~~ everybody is making the usual rude remark --- Isn't he like his Father? People make all sorts of jokes about a giraffe --- but he's no joke to his mother. ~~And when he asked him~~

~~He is the only one who has been able to make a giraffe look like a baby.~~

~~as a baby.~~

GRACE MOORE.

London --- Grace Moore, singing star of film and opera, has arrived on a short visit. She made a call at Queen Mary's Hospital/^{for} ~~in~~ the East End --- and spent a busy day.

Receiving bouquets and ~~and~~ -- signing autographs in fact --- giving the kiddies the time of their lives.

even if he does look like Donald Duck
