

576
EYSTON HONOURED.

Paris --- a decoration for Captain George Eyston, the man who broke the world's land speed record by travelling at 357 miles an hour. At this lunch he received the Legion of Honour --- and well-known French racing motorists applauded the man who is king of them all. Captain Eyston is acknowledged the fastest man on earth --- but he had to be kissed like anyone else.