

WEDDING.

5-36

London --- the bride was Miss Elizabeth Knatchbull-Hugessen, daughter of the British Ambassador who was wounded in China. The wedding was at St Peter 's, Eaton Square. Lady onlookers expressed the usual interest in the targets of Cupid's darts, as the bride came out with the bridegroom, Mr George Young. Two years ago the bride was wounded by a stray bullet in Nanking-- the bridegroom gave her first aid, ~~and this is the romantic~~ GOLF.

Florida --- some of those bathing beauties are receiving a lesson in golf from National Champion Ralph Guldahl. They're not so hot at golf. So the champion shows them how to hit that little white ball while our cameraman takes cover. Your honour, ~~the~~ --- look out.

Subject