

LADY CYCLISTS.

570

There was a big turn-out at famous old Lullingstone Castle when Lady Cyclists from all over the country held a rally in the spacious grounds. There were various items on the day's programme, among them being the style-riding contest and the competition for the neatest cycling costume.

The rally was held in the Castle grounds by permission of Sir Oliver Hart Dyke, and it was Lady Hart Dyke who presented the prizes. ~~Miss Stammers was first for style and~~

~~second for dress, the second Sir Hart Dyke was the winner.~~
