ETON AND HARROW.

Lord's --- it's the annual cricket match between Eton and H
Harrow, but I don't think girls care much about cricket, do you?
This long-standing fixture is mostly remarkable as a parade of beauty and fashion. Large numbers of <sup>our</sup> Cabinet Ministers went to either Eton or Harrow --- you can't help feeling that Europe would be a nicer place if Hitler had been there too

What are you doing in that hat?
