SIROCCO.

Well earned decorations for captain and crew of the torpedo boat Sirocco --- that is the French warship that has sunk no less than three enemy submarines. They have earned the gratitude of France and of all who sail the seas --- all except the U-Boats.
SWEDISH RED CROSS.

Help for Finland. Sweden has despatched her second ambulance unit and Prince Charles, President of the Swedish Red Cross, was present to see them off. But Finland still has need of all the help she can get --- and she needs it quickly.
