INVESTITURE.

Another day of investiture at Buckingham Palace; another day when distinguished service and gallantry receive the outward sign of a nation's social gratitude. Navy Army and Air Force share the awards, but often the family gets the biggest kick out of a medal.....

a son --- or in this case a wife who is a Junior Commander in the A.T.S. ~~--- Knight Bachelor ---~~ ~~--- Knight Bachelor ---~~ A civil award went to Lord Provost Dollan, ~~the~~ ~~representative of a great Scottish city.~~ He modestly said his the honour was not for himself, but for Glasgow. BADEN POWELL FUNERAL.

The passing of a very great man. In this simple and lonely corner of the Empire Lord Baden Powell was laid to rest. At Nyeri in Kenya there were no great crowds to witness the closing of a ~~career~~ monumental career. But his work lives on and to millions he will ~~live~~ always be the Chief Scout. QUEEN WILHELMINA.

Going aboard a new Dutch warship in a British port --- Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands. ~~This great lady who survived so many~~ <sup>after surviving</sup> ~~many~~ cowardly attempts on her life when the Low Countries were invaded <sup>the gallant lady</sup> is still in the fighting line --- cheering on her sailors who will celebrate Holland's victory with our own.
