BOXING.

A programme of boxing at a famous cinema near London brought the Irish Guards into contact with the Canadians..... ~~the~~ the result as you might suppose was some pretty lively scrapping. ~~M~~ The entries included Army Champions, Champions of the army in Egypt and Brigade Champions --- and they're a good advertisement of the fitness of the troops - -- and their offensive spirit.

TABLE TENNIS.

This year's Table Tennis International Tournament was in aid of the Red Cross --- and the world's best players were on the programme. The men's singles invitation was won by Bergman from the former world-champion Barna --- ~~and he won it on speed.~~ but it was pretty even pegging. ~~It was pretty~~ for the ~~--- Bergman won the first two games, but Barna~~ next two and ~~only lost on a tight finish in the fifth.~~

KING AND QUEEN AND ANTI-TANK GUNS.

Somewhere in the Southern Command there was a demonstration of firing anti-tank guns watched by the King and Queen. It was a busy day and ~~the~~ various types of gun were seen in action. But there was one thing about them that was the same every time --- and that was the very loud bang.

GAS TEST AT ESHER.

The most important thing to know about gas is that if you know what to do and do it quickly it can cause you very little harm --- and for that reason many towns are having realistic gas demonstrations in which the general public takes part. This one was at Esher---- part of the exercises carried out at the request of the London Civil Defence Region. Here is something you may not have seen before --- a special type of gas mask for people suffering from bronchial trouble.
