

GENERAL WAVELL.

810

Meeting in Cairo --- the Empire Armies' Commanders in the Middle East and India. The figure of General Wavell is familiar to everyone since his brilliant advance from Sollum to Benghazi smashed the Italian Armies. With him is the less well-known General Auchinleck, who has exchanged with General Wavell the responsibility for the Middle East campaign.

KING PETER AT M.O.I.

A squad with fixed bayonets outside the Ministry of Information is something you don't get every day. When the Newsreels call they just set the dog on us. But this was a visit by the young King Peter of Jugo-Slavia: he was received by the Minister, Mr. Brenden Bracken.

CAPTURED U-BOAT.

Coming into a British port --- the first U-Boat to be captured by aircraft in this war. You will recall the story of how the Hudson attacked the submarine and forced it to surface, then kept guard <sup>with the Catalina</sup> till the Navy arrived. <sup>to take over</sup> Incidentally, there seems to be a bit of an ancient Mariner yarn going on by one of the reception committee. Shurrup! Lieutenant Colvin commanded the prize crew --- and the Hudson's captain was Squadron Leader Thompson. Well done.
