

MINNESOTA ICE SKATING ~~MINNEAPOLIS~~

Minnesota's speed-skating jamboree at St Paul brings out all the flying aces for the North American outdoor championships.

Former champion Mary Dolan on the sidelines defending her title, while Carmelite Landy sets her own pace to keep her laurels in the 220 yards ~~family~~ finals.

5 This gives ~~the~~ Massachusetts champion her second consecutive crown. In the senior men's mile event, ~~there's~~ there's another pair of flashing ~~pair~~ blades out there with a title on the line. And he is taking the lead. Ken Bartholomew, coming into the stretch with everything under control. A smooth performance by an expert who flashes by in the good time of 3 minutes, 20-seconds. This clinches the title for Minneapolis ~~and~~ and makes a twin-star billing in the final close-up.
