The International Soccer at Wembley just before the Wings for Victory Week attracted a crowd of 75,000: a peace time crowd --- but they were war workers---/with the singing led by a girl in the services

Followed by an appeal by Squadron Leader Learoyd --- the

Dortmund-Ems Canal V.C

The King met the players before the match, Wales first Wales won the toss, but when England kicked off they began an afternoon's football in which they gave a superb exhibition of the game. In the first twenty minutes, England scored their first goal:
Hagan and Crompton took the ball down on the left wing and centred for Carter to bang it into the net

Almost on top of the first goal England got another from their Wolverhampton centre --- Westcott

Then Wales replied with Bryn Jones taking the ball to the England goal -area --- and Lourie scored

Under the eyes of the Soviet Ambassador the game produced mother goal for each side --- this was England's --- scored by Carter alf-time score England 3 --- Wales 2.

In the second half England put on two more goals and Wales one more; this is England's from fourth --- another from Westcott.

And so a great match in lovely weather finished up with a win for England --- 5 - 3
