

On the airport at Bermuda, Sir Winston Churchill made friends with Billy - (the goat mascot of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers) while waiting to welcome M. Laniel, the French Premier, to the Big Three Conference.

Soon, the French airliner came taxiing in - and Sir Winston and Mr Eden warmly greeted M. Laniel - who was accompanied by his Foreign Minister - M. Bidault

Next day, saw the arrival of President Eisenhower - and both the British and French Premiers were waiting on Kindley Airfield to welcome him...

After exchanging warm greetings - the President inspected a Guard of Honour - of the Fusiliers and American servicemen.

The talks (a series of informal discussions) have taken place at the Mid-Ocean Club. And before the President left to address the United Nations assembly - we heard the good news that the ~~Three~~ Western Leaders ASREED ON A MEETING WITH are ~~agreed to meet~~ ASREED ON A MEETING WITH Russia in Big Four Talks in the coming year...
