

Royal Wedding in France

France - where fifteen hundred guests attended the wedding of Princess Margherita, the daughter of the late Duke of Aosta (former Viceroy of Ethiopia) to Archduke Robert of Hapsburg - second son of the Emperor Charles...

The wedding was held at the 16th century Church at Bour-en-Bresse - which was built by their common ancestor, Margaret of Austria...

And Ex-King Umberto of Italy, the Bride's ^{WAS AMONGST THOSE WHO}uncle [^]witnessed the signing of the Register - ~~an~~ ^A happy chapter in the ~~old~~ story of Europe's Royal Houses.

Munich circus

Munich - where A WELL KNOWN TRAINER ~~puts~~ his lions and tigers through their paces in the same cage...

One of Europe's leading trainers ~~HE~~ ^{HE} is armed with only ~~a~~ ^A whip; but he daily wins this "battle of wills" with the King of beasts.

~~Without years of experience, many generations of children, and grown-ups, too, PATIENCE, AND NERVES OF STEEL ARE REQUIRED FOR~~

~~have not been able to do this as they watched the daring~~ ^{THIS} ~~job. IN ZOOS ANIMALS ARE KEPT BEHIND IRON BARS - BUT HERE~~

~~the like these unfold. Just another of the thrills provided by these~~ ^{THE TRAINER'S WILL-POWER IS HIS ONLY DEFENCE AS HE PUTS}

~~hard-working folk under the Big Top.~~ ^{HIS PETS "THROUGH THE HOOP"}

American bridge-building tanks

America - where ^{IN} ~~the~~ Virginia, they're testing a portable assault-type bridge, which can be pushed into position over narrow canals and streams whilst under heavy fire...

Formerly, the Engineers would lay the bridge ~~after~~ ^{often} suffering heavy casualties. Now, the M.46 does the job - providing a passage to take loads up to sixty tons and ~~protection~~ ^{protection} for a hard-working Army Corps.

California Tournament of Roses

California - where the annual "Tournament of Roses" (America's most beautiful floral pageant) is watched by over a million spectators at Pasadena...

Hundreds of spectacular floats make up the four-and-a-half mile procession, and this one, was the International award winner for Mexico...