

Rolls-Royce anniversary

Manchester: The Golden Jubilee of the Rolls-Royce is celebrated by a Ceremonial Parade of four early models - from the home in Knutsford of the late Sir Henry Royce - to the tiny workshop in the city where the partnership first began.

Since those early days, the hallmark of the car has been the distinctive radiator, which ~~through~~ has remained, through fifty changing years, the classical symbol of motoring perfection.

Few of us are ever fortunate enough to ride in a Rolls - though every dog has its day... ~~mind those grubby paws~~ Ah Ah! Mind those grubby paws!!!

Susan Shentall wedding

Derbyshire: Wedding bells for a modern Juliet - better known as film starlet Susan Shentall - arriving on the arm of her Father for her wedding at Old Brampton Parish Church, near Chesterfield...

The Bride - who stars in the forthcoming film production of the great Romance ~~is~~ reappears with her real-life Romeo - Mr Philip Worthington

The Bride wore a gown of white lace and tulle - and with her groom, received the congratulations of well-wishers at the reception.

The honeymoon will be spent in Italy - where much of "Romeo and Juliet" was filmed.

Elections in Ireland

Southern Ireland: After an apathetic beginning, the General Election gathered momentum- and in some constituencies, a record number of votes was recorded.

At College Green, Dublin- Mr de Valera- the Government Leader- addressed a large crowd, while Mr Costello- leader of the biggest Opposition Party- held a final rally.

On Polling Day, Mr de Valera was an early arrival at his local booth.

~~Mr Costello was also present. And the final~~

~~HOWEVER~~ ~~the Coalition Parties~~ ~~WERE TO OBTAIN A~~ sufficient majority to form a Government ~~MR COSTELLO~~
