England V Switzerland

Switzerland: England's skipper Billy Wright exchanged World Cup souvenirs, and the battle was on, for a place in the last eight.

Switzerland kicked off, and in torrid heat of over 100 degrees, white-shirted England kept cool as they withstood fierce early attacks.

~~England~~ <sup>England</sup> took the lead just before half-time, Jimmy Mullen dribbling round goalkeeper Parlier - to score.

In the second half, fine defensive covering raised hopes that England may have found a solid answer to that worrying problem.

A cheer, too, for Wilshaw's brilliant solo effort. He beat three defenders to score, in an encouraging two-nothing victory.

Sailing barge race

On the Thames - Red sails are spread for the annual Sailing barge match - from Gravesend to the North Oaze buoy in the Thames Estuary, and back...
AND MOST PICTURESQUE RACES.
one of the river's oldest races...

~~And these aerial views show that even an old barge can look as trim as~~ full sail. Fifty years ago, three thousand of these craft plied on the River. To-day, only eight took part in the race, <sup>which was</sup> won by the champion "Sara".
