

2277

Jet fighter contest

America: Jet-fighter teams choose their weapons at Yuma Air Base, Arizona, for the 1955 Rocket-firing championship. ~~and~~ ^{Eight} teams - representing every American air defence command - take off for their sky-high shooting range. /S

A B-29 tows the target sleeve - and the aerial marksmen discharge their deadly cargo. /

~~Top-level shooting - and top honours for the American team.~~

~~Monty presents colours~~ Princess Royal

Canada: During her three weeks tour of the Dominion, the Princess Royal opened a new cadet wing of the Royal Roads Training College for future officers of the fighting Services.

During a busy two-day stay in Vancouver, patients at the Shaughnessy Military Hospital received kind encouragement from ~~the Princess Royal~~ ^{this charming Royal ambassador.} /

Monty presents colours

Durham: In the Bowes Museum Park, Barnard Castle, Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery presented new colours to the First Battalion, the South Lancashire Regiment. The old colours were presented by the Duke of Windsor (then Prince of Wales) in 1927.

A salute for the Field Marshal - continuing an association that goes back to the Normandy beaches - on D-Day... /

Eisenhower's recovery

America: Sitting in the ^{health-}~~best~~-giving sunshine, President Eisenhower ^{SINCE HIS ILLNESS} poses for the cameras for the first-time on the roof of the Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, Denver.

The President was wearing the pyjamas given him by the White House Press Corps on which ^{were} ~~was~~ embroidered ^{the words} "Much better, thanks" / ~~Washington is already planning a great...~~