News highlights continued

Football

Ilford: The barefooted soccer tourists from Uganda kicked off against Britain's Olympic Eleven, and were a goal down in the first minute - but they soon pulled their socks up after four resounding defeats, Uganda were, at last, playing in suitable EQUALISED conditions and Parma example a thirty yard and with a great goal.

[STAYED ON TOP.]
Uganda were level. Then, with minutes to go, British Olympic hopes sank to zero as Serumagi scored - for a well-earned two-one victory for Uganda (Seruwagi) Parma.

Californian Forest Fire

California: Fire-fighters from far and wide were rushed to a mountain resort, near San Bernandino, when a fierce bluze swept through through through thousands of tinder-dry forest acres, following the crash of a jet plane all available men, (using every vantage point), fought a desperate battle to stem the devouring flames.

Happily, no lives were lost in this rampaging inferno, which raged for four days before it was finally subdued.