

London: A fashionable ~~A late-afternoon~~ wedding at the Grosvenor Chapel, Mayfair.

And a Churchill family gathering, too, as Sir Winston ~~escorted~~ escorted Lady Eden to the wedding of his grand-niece, Sally.

~~Flashbulbs~~ Flashbulbs served to spotlight the arriving guests: the ceremony was held in a late afternoon.

The Bride, with her Father, Mr John Spencer ^{CHURCHILL} arrived late. She had made a special call on her ~~Grandmother~~ Great-Aunt, Lady Churchill - recovering from ^a recent operation.

After the ceremony, 22 year-old Sally Churchill looked ^{as radiant as every bride could be} radiant - in her gown of chalk-white ~~lustrous~~ satin. ~~Her groom was~~

Her Groom was Mr Colin Crewe - a Lloyd's broker. They are spending the honeymoon in North Africa.

Almost the last picture in the fading light featured the nine charming attendants...

Then Sir Winston left - ~~THAT FAMILIAR AND WELL-LOVED FIGURE~~
~~Now on the eve of his 83rd~~ NOW ON THE EVE OF HIS 83RD
